Announcement: Economic Series on Jammu and Kashmir & Indian Economy

Dear Esteemed Colleagues and Professionals

The Jammu and Kashmir Economic Association is pleased to announce an upcoming series of discussions focusing on critical aspects of economic development and policy. This initiative aims to foster an in-depth dialogue on the challenges and opportunities facing both the Jammu and Kashmir economy, as well as the broader Indian economy. We are calling for resource persons and moderators for these sessions, which will cover a wide range of topics relevant to economic policy, growth, and development.

Details of the Announcement Series:

Series 1: Jammu and Kashmir Economy

Topics will include but are not limited to: regional economic development, key sectors, challenges in governance, infrastructure, and the role of policy in shaping economic outcomes in Jammu and Kashmir.

Series 2: Indian Economy

Topics will encompass macroeconomic trends, fiscal policy, trade, industry, and other significant factors shaping India's economic trajectory.

We invite the following to express their interest:

Resource Persons: Experts, scholars, and professionals who are willing to present and share insights on relevant topics.

Series Moderators: Individuals with expertise in moderating and facilitating discussions on economic topics.

Interested parties should send their expressions of interest, along with a brief profile of their expertise and preferred topic(s), to jkeconomicassociation@gmail.com. Your participation will be invaluable in enriching these discussions and driving the conversations that matter for both Jammu and Kashmir and India's economic future.
